Trinity 6100 Khatun Kharji
Dry white wine
2016

Region:	Aghavnadzor, Vayots Dzor, Armenia
Terroir:	Volcanic soil with high content of sand and gravel. Continental climate with around 250 sun days/year. Vineyard elevation – 1300 m above the sea level.
Technical Analysis:	Varietal: 100% Khatun Kharji Alcohol: 12% pH: 2.8 TA: 5.7 g/L
Pruning and growing system:	Basket, bush vine
Vinification:	The grapes are harvested during September, at the right degree of ripeness and the expressed level of acidity. Bunches are directly pressed without additional maceration. The fermentation is consistently performed at 13°C. After the fermentation, the wine is aged on the lees for two weeks. Being one of the oldest cultivated autochthone grape varieties of Vayots Dzor, Khatun Kharji expresses a unique resistance to multiple diseases and extreme weather conditions of the region.
Colour:	Pale golden with green reflection
Flavour profile:	Crisp, refreshing with a good body, this wine combines flavours of citrus, freshly cut grass, pear with a slight touch of tropical aromas.
